

Ettahe Wins Third Straight Victory at Bowie—Rain Halts Pinehurst Tennis Play

Kennedy Horse Boosts Price By His Victory

Star Realm Gives Exhibition of Erratic Running, but Captures Benning Purse

From a Special Correspondent
BOWIE, Md., April 9.—The return of warm weather and clear skies drew a record-breaking crowd to the Bowie track today, and though the Friday offering was only ordinary some really high-class racing was on tap and the spectators were well rewarded.

Ettahe came very near establishing himself the champion of the Bowie meet. It was in the fourth race, a selling event over the six and one-half furlong route, and the clever way in which he galloped off with the purse caused him to be boosted when offered for sale. It was Ettahe's third straight victory this week, and the way he handled the weight suggests that he might prove a very useful player for his present owner.

Ettahe was entered for $10,000, and when a bid was asked he promptly passed to $2,000 at which figure John Kennedy, his owner, bought him in.

The Benning Purse, fifth on the card at one mile, resulted in a surprise for the players when Star Realm gave an exhibition of erratic running, but managed to retain his early advantage and won. He rushed into the lead quickly, but when he struck the head of the line he was thrown off his stride. Miller made no attempt to bring him back and let him run in the middle of the track, winning by a half length. He paid $10.40. Frank Moore was second and Mountain Rose 2d was third.

Marmite, the odds on choice, had a hard time landing the third event. He was raced to pieces out in front for the first six furlongs and when the real racing began he showed signs of tiring and Wallis had to ride him out at the end.

Verity made it two in a row when she easily won the last event from a good field. Her victory was somewhat of a surprise and the price was $13.00 for a $2 ticket.

Saddle Horse Breeders Make Change in Rules

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 9.—Changes in the rules of the American Saddle Horse Breeders' Association at its annual meeting here today made eligible for registration "the female progeny of a registered saddle stallion and a mare by a registered saddle stallion." Previously only stallions in this class were eligible.

All officers of the association, including President Claude M. Thomas, Paris Ky., were re-elected.

The principal address, delivered by Wayne Moore of Chicago, secretary of the Horse Association of America, was to the effect that the number of horses in the country had grown to 21,100,000, an increase of more than 1,000,000 in ten years, even though the use of automobiles has been widely extended.

Soccer Games To-day

The University of Pennsylvania soccer team, intercollegiate champion, will be called upon today to defend its laurels at St. Martin's, Philadelphia, where they will be opposed by a team representing the Staten Island football club. The Robins, Brooklyn, line last night on its way to meet the Fore River team in the Eastern semifinals for the U. S. F. A. cup at Pawtucket, R. I.

Mountaineers Win

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., April 9.—West Virginia University defeated Fairmont College at baseball here today by a score of 4 to 0.

U. S. Consents To New Draw For Davis Cup

Belated Entries of France and Canada May Be Accepted by Australians

The likelihood of a new draw for the Davis cup preliminary rounds, to include France and possibly Canada, is indicated by a cablegram received from the French association and the reply thereto of the United States Lawn Tennis Association yesterday.

When the entries closed on March 1 the countries included in the draw were England, Holland, South Africa and the United States, which were paired in that order.

On March 10 a cablegram from Sydney stated that the Australian association had delayed the entry of Canada, which was delayed in transit, but had suggested that if Canada desired to enter it should obtain the consent to a new draw of the four nations whose entries were received March 1. No action on this was taken by Canada.

Apparently France also intended to enter for a cablegram to the United States Lawn Tennis Association shows that the French authorities have been in communication with Australia regarding a challenge.

The French cable to the national association said that Australia desired the consent of the nations already entered for a new draw that would admit France. This was referred to the Davis Cup committee of the national association.

The details of the second draw have been forwarded to the secretary of the Canadian Lawn Tennis Association, in the belief that they might not have been notified of the proposed action, and in case a new draw were made might desire to be included. Nothing has been heard as to the intentions of the Canadian association.

Londos Picks Lewis To Conquer Stecher

Jim Londos, the Greek champion, is one of the best wrestlers in the world who firmly believes that "Strangler" Lewis will conquer Joe Stecher when the two meet Friday night at the Tia Regiment Armory.

"Take my word," said Londos yesterday, "Lewis will be the next world's wrestling champion, for he will beat Stecher by a certainty."

Londos declares he is qualified to forecast the result, for he met and lost to both gladiators. When Londos met Stecher he took the champion more than two hours to defeat the doughty Greek. With Lewis he didn't last as long, and after he left the ring he declared Lewis was the most dangerous opponent he ever tackled.

Brother vs. Brother

C. Sydnam Cutting and Fulton Cutting, brothers, will meet in the final round match of the national amateur court tennis championship tournament on the courts of the Racquet and Tennis Club this afternoon. The pair met recently for the club title, with Sydnam the victor after a thrilling three-hour duel. The winner of today's match will face Jay Gould, the champion, in the challenge round Monday.

Columbia Rifle Team Rolls Up Score of 969

Columbia's rifle team yesterday shot the eighth of the two matches for the intercollegiate championship and rolled up a score of 969, one point higher than the last match, but eleven points below the season's high mark.

R. W. Kerr, last year's captain, led the Blue and White marksmen with a total of 195 out of a possible 200. The present captain, L. R. Condon, was tied for second place with J. E. Klinger, each breaking 184 targets. The other two shooters were not far behind, the entire team being evenly matched. The lowest score was 193.

Miss Zinderstein Likely To Retain Championship

Playing Through Titleholder Faces Strong Opposition in Lower Half

By Fred Hawthorne
PINEHURST, N. C., April 9.—Not a racquet was swung today in the men's and women's annual United North and South championship lawn tennis tournament. The women's singles event was scheduled for two full rounds, but as it is, the players may have to do double duty tomorrow.

If the prohibition party would put up an "all dry" platform and guarantee no rain except at night during the outdoor court season, the tennis players would return a unanimous vote for the "dry" candidates.

The nineteen women entered in the singles are fairly well distributed as regards playing strength. Miss Marion Zinderstein, the young playing though entries were received March 1. No action on this was taken by Canada.

Apparently France also intended to enter for a cablegram to the United States Lawn Tennis Association shows that the French authorities have been in communication with Australia regarding a challenge.

The French cable to the national association said that Australia desired the consent of the nations already entered for a new draw that would admit France. This was referred to the Davis Cup committee of the national association.

Close Match Expected

One of the finest matches of the early rounds ought to result in the meeting between Mrs. Candee and Miss Gable. In the second round, Mrs. Candee shins most brightly when close to the net, possessing a very severe overhead game, and if she can work her way into the following position may offset Miss Gable's hard-driving attack. The margin of superiority between the two appears very slight.

In the upper brackets Mrs. Benjamin Briggs and Mrs. Thelma Schott, of New York, ought to win their opening matches and clash in the round before the semi-final. By virtue of tournament experience, Mrs. Briggs appears to have the advantage over Mrs. Schott.

Miss Gable's first match brings her against Miss Bertha Sexton, of Brooklyn, and here her remarkable ability to cover court and her splendid deep driving are factors that should pull her through.

This evening all the players were the guests of Leonard Tufts, mine host of the Carolina, at a dinner and dance given at the clubhouse. The dawn and the midman acted as escorts for many of the guests on the way back to the hotel.

Players Take to Links

Some of those who could not play on the courts climbed into rubber armor and trekked around the golf links. As Pinehurst has four courses, the very place where Hagen took a bit of time after slicing his drive.

There were rumors in the lobby of the Carolina last night that Mary Gable had come down from New York and was dancing in the ballroom. A general stampede started in that direction and a "vision of delight" in black was pointed out as the songbird, but the report turned out to be slightly exaggerated. Fred Briggs was responsible for the rumor.

Quimet Anxious To Test Course Of Engineers' Club

Francis Quimet, who has just returned with the championship of the North and South tournament from Pinehurst, N. C., failed to arrive here until 11 o'clock Thursday night, although he was due to land at 4:30.

Quimet was scheduled to play a round over the Engineers' course at Roslyn, L. I., yesterday, but on arising he announced that he was tired from his trip and would proceed immediately to Boston to attend a business meeting.

The former open and amateur champion said he was planning to return soon, however, to get a line on the course here. He said he had heard a great deal about it and was anxious to play over the Roslyn links. The top South apparently proved of great benefit to Quimet, as he appeared in good condition and stated that he was feeling fine.

The Greenwich Country Club is planning the busiest season it has enjoyed in years. Already seven stellar events have been carded for the club besides the various club tournaments which will be conducted as usual.

In addition to the metropolitan open championship and the women's metropolitan title meet, the Metropolitan Advertising Golf Association tourney will be conducted there, also the Yale-Columbia team match on May 1 and the Princeton-Cornell contest on May 29. Home and home team matches will be played between the Greenwich club and Woodway, the first to take place on the Woodway links June 19.

Fur and Fun

I GET a lot of fun out of my business by giving better value for less money.

This Spring, I'm having more fun than a small boy at the circus, because the Australian rabbit fur I bought two years ago at less than half what it costs today, makes it possible for me to do stunts that other hatmakers call "merchandising miracles."

I can't pull a rabbit out of a silk hat with my sleeves rolled up, but I'm making soft hats out of imported rabbit's fur this Spring for $3.85, that have all the quality you want in a good hat, and all the style you can get anywhere at any price.

For the young fellow who has been looking for something different since the first Armistice Day, I've got a nifty, new turban brim, with a bow in the back.

They're all one Price $3.85
